LESSONS OF THRIFT TO BE LEARNED ANEW

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 18.—President-elect Harding will be unable to stop at Vera Cruz, it was learned today. Steamship officials informed him it would be impractical to route a vessel by way of the Mexican port. He had previously announced he would visit there if a vessel could be routed that way.

Harding, in discussing the economic situation today before the Chamber of Commerce here, said that though reverses and disturbances may be ahead of us, America will face them courageously and will win out. He warned that new burdens may have to be borne, extravagances renounced and old lessons of thrift learned anew.

TEXAS NOW AFTER ANTI-ALIEN LAND LAW

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 18.—A bill designed to prevent Japanese from owning or leasing land in Texas is now being drawn up by American Legion executives for introduction at the fall session of the state legislature, it became known today.

12 INDIANAPOLIS MEN BURIED UNDER WALLS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 18.—Twelve workmen were injured, several seriously, today when they were buried under fallen walls and steel girders by the collapse of the frame work of a school building under construction here.

COMMERCE COMMISSION APPROVES RAISE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission today approved an express rate increase of one-half a cent per pound on short haul shipments of daily newspapers.

HOG PRICES DROP AT OPENING OF MARKET

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—Hog prices tumbled from 35c to 40c at the opening of the Chicago livestock market today.

QUALITY ADDS MEAT MARKET

PARKER & SCHARNIKOW BUY GROCERY STOCK; E. S. M'KEE PUTS IN MEAT MARKET

AN IMPORTANT DEAL

ALL PRESENT EMPLOYES OF BOTH FIRMS TO BE RETAINED

The Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank Co.'s plans to improve the block of real estate owned on the east side of Brand and extending from and including the present quarters of the Boulevard branch to the postoffice, have brought about several changes and incidentally given birth to a strong combination in the grocery and meat market business. E. S. McKee, who has conducted the Central market at 116 North Brand for several years, has sold his stock of groceries to Parker & Scharnikow, of the Quality Grocery, and it will be moved to the rooms of the latter between Saturday evening and Monday morning. Mr. McKee will conduct a large meat market in the Quality, occupying the north side of the front room, with cutting blocks in the big show window. The shelving now occupying the north wall will be moved to the mezzanine floor at the back part of the room and the offices will be up there also. Two telephones will be in use the numbers of both the stores, 59 and 377 being retained. Mrs. McKee will preside at the phones and take orders. The Quality takes over the customers of the Central, also, and things will move on without change. Eventually the store will be enlarged to just double its present capacity.

Archie Parker, senior member of the Quality firm, says the growing importance of Glendale as a business center demands the best of everything in the mercantile line and it is the design of himself, Mrs. Scharnikow, his partner, and Mr. McKee of the market, to have all the accommodations of the consolidated business the very best. All of the employes of both stores will be retained.

It is understood that the Glendale Grocerteria will occupy the room to be vacated by the Central market, as the bank will use the room the former now occupies and the one just north of it.

PAPER IS READ

ERROR IN EVENING NEWS PROVES THIS TO NEALE & GREGG HARDWARE CO.

The Glendale Evening News subscription list is growing constantly. Not a day passes but we add new names to the list and we are sure they all want the paper because they pay for it in advance and they are voluntary subscribers; they are unsolicited and are not influenced by the offer of a prize of any kind. The fact that Glendale people generally want the paper and read it makes it a good advertising medium.

A ridiculous typographical error appearing in the advertisement of the Neale & Gregg Hardware company recently brought home to that firm this fact. Mr. Neale writes as follows:

"In Monday's issue of your paper we had a display advertisement of Christmas toys, and it has been very forcibly brought to our attention that advertising in your paper surely brings results. The word "run" was inserted in your paper "ruin;" this made the wording take a funny expression and several of our customers have had a lot of amusement out of it.

"We have had this error in spelling called to our attention by, at least, twenty-five different people, and we are quite satisfied that our money is well spent for our advertising in your paper, as this one incident proves to us that your paper is well and closely read."

Kissler-Schaffer

Allen Kissler and Mrs. Mary Schaffer were united in marriage at the West Glendale Methodist church last evening, Rev. W. W. Cookman officiating, before a gathering of their intimate friends. Mrs. Mabel Insley and C. W. Cooper attended the bride and groom. Mr. and Mrs. Kissler are employed by Pope & Tollett, she as fountain clerk and he as chef. After a short honeymoon trip they will return to Glendale, where they expect to make their home.

Massachusetts Meeting

Former residents of the old Bay State will celebrate Thanksgiving one day late with a special reunion in Bartel hall, Bartel apartments, 934 West Sixth street, Los Angeles, Friday evening, November 26.

There will be an appropriate program, a social hour and dancing. All Massachusetts people will be welcome.

MUTUAL BENEFIT READING CIRCLE

MRS. C. H. TOLL, FORMER PRESIDENT, IN CHAIR DURING PART OF MEETING

IS HONORED GUEST

IS AFFECTIONATELY TERMED MOTHER OF THE ORGANIZATION

(Communicated)

Wednesday was "Old Members' Day" at the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle. The public library juvenile room was filled with both the old and the new members and sitting in the presiding officer's chair was Mrs. Charles H. Toll. This seemed as it should be as Mrs. Toll is really the mother of the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle and to see the light of love in the eyes of all those who greeted her upon this, her return for the day one would surely know that her "children" hold her in high esteem and affection.

The meeting followed the regular business procedure. Mrs. Danford gave a short talk on children's reading and children's work urging the mothers to send the children to the library on Saturday afternoon of this week as this is to be their day. Mrs. R. T. Burr gave a report of the growth of the reading circle idea.

Mrs. John Cotton gave a splendid review of an article dealing with the school and society and brought out the need of developing the social side of the high school child as well as the regular school activities. Our own Glendale high does this by the means of the student body, its orchestra, class plays, debates, and the like, all of which activities tend to develop the social side of the child.

Mrs. Toll commended the plan of having magazine article reviews and hoped that the circle would grow in many ways through adopting new ideas that prove successful.

A few of the club's calendars were on exhibition and they were declared works of art. Much of the hard work done on them was accomplished by Mrs. C. H. Pendleton, to whom the circle extended a vote of thanks. A vote of appreciation was also sent Mrs. Kirk Smith who designed the cover and motives for the interior. A dedication to Mrs. Toll composed by

"Goose and Surprise"

When you attend the bazaar of the Tuesday Afternoon club—and everyone is looking forward, of course, to this bazaar—your attention will be attracted at once to a Great Goose whom delighted youngsters, from the ages of two to forty times two years, are feeding bits of money. Unlike the ordinary variety of goose, human or lamellirostral, this bird does not gobble up your money and give nothing in return. No, indeed! Every time one feeds this wonder-goose a piece of money, he hands one back a Surprise—and it's worth the money, too!

The committee in charge of the "Goose and Surprise" plan, of which Mrs. J. T. Crampton is chairman, met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. E. Downing, on Hawthorne street, to discuss plans for this unique feature.

Among those present were Mesdames C. R. Hallett, J. W. Feinstein, Joseph Cave, Fred Abbey and Roger Bentley, besides, of course, the chairman and the hostess.

Toys, books and everything you can possibly think of as giving joy to a child, have been donated, and the great preparations being made for this delightful feature make its success a foregone conclusion.

Refreshments were served the ladies in attendance by the hostess, Mrs. Downing.

Pay Assembly

The first pay assembly of the season was given by the Glendale Union High school in their auditorium yesterday morning. The following musical program was presented by Brahm Van den Berg: Balade in G Minor (Chopin); The Indian, an Impression (Stockhoff); Polka (Rachmamnoff) and The Eagle (McDowell). Following a short intermission the following numbers were given: Nocturne No. 2 (Chopin); La Campanella (Liszt); Serenade (Bhanchet), and Concert Etude in G Flat (Moszkowsky). The largest number of people ever present at a pay assembly was in attendance. The seating capacity of the auditorium would not aicommodate all who wished to hear this noted artist.

TRAVELLERS' IMPRESSIONS

MR. AND MRS. J. A. BENDER ARE GUESTS IN RIGDON HOME ON HOMEWARD TRIP

VISITED THE ORIENT

EN ROUTE FROM WORLD'S SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION AT TOKIO

Tales told by travelers hold for us an interest that is different from that of the travel stories we read—partly, perhaps, because the spoken word has a vivid quality all its own, tinged with the personality of the speaker as it impresses each member of his audience; partly, too, by the fact that we can interrupt the tale being told, with questions on any particular part of it that has especial interest for us.

Two travelers willing to be interrupted and to answer innumerable questions ispired by their interesting tales have just been the house guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Rigdon, of 224 West Doran street.

They are Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bender, of Kansas, who are on their homeward journey from the World's Sunday School convention in Tokio, Japan. They left their home on the 11th of last August and sailed from San Francisco on the 21st of the same month, visited Hawaii en route and landed in Yokahama on September 10th.

They spent four or five days in Korea, visited the Chinese cities of Shanghai, Pekin and Nankin, and a number of points of interest in Japan, before the time set for the convention in Tokio.

There were 32 nations represented at this convention. There were 1000 delegates in attendance, 499 of them being Americans and 460 of these were from the United States. John Wanamaker, Jr., was elected president of the next World's convention to be held four years hence. The president of the one just closed was a Londoner. Glasgow, Scotland, and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, are vieing with each other for the next convention. It has not yet been decided at which place it will be held.

Dignitaries of the churches of every nation were seen on the platform and the programs were interesting and instructive, and they were carried out as arranged, in spite of the fact that on the eve of the opening of the convention the large convention hall, erected expressly for the occasion, was completely destroyed by fire.

This calamity was caused by overcharged electric wires. A chorus of 500 was rehearsing in the hall at the time, under the direction of W. Augustine Smith, of Boston. Four magnificent pageants were planned for

ZONING COMMITTEE

HOLDS MEETING AND CONSIDERS MOVING PICTURE STUDIO ZONE

The Zoning committee held a session yesterday afternoon at the city hall and the only question considered was the proposed zone in the southeast part of the city for moving picture studios. Several property owners of Verdugo road frontage included in the proposed zone were present and entered a strong protest. It was finally decided to make the western boundary of the proposed zone Adams street, the northern a line paralleling Windsor road 100 feet south of it, the eastern a line paralleling Hilda avenue and 200 feet west of it, the south line the city limits. Further hearing was postponed for two weeks, by which time every property owner within and bordering the reconstructed zone will have been notified and given an opportunity to protest or approve.

For State President

In honor of Mrs. Aaron Schloss, state president of federated woman's clubs, the Los Angeles district federation will hold a reception at the Ebell club house, Eighteenth and Figueroa streets, on the afternoon of Tuesday, November 23d.

An invitation is extended to all members of federated clubs, but owing to the meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon club on that date, it is probable that few will attend from Glendale.

BOOSTERS AND BUILDERS

ARE ROBERT M'KENZIE AND S. L. HENRY, LATE OF OHIO, NOW OF GLENDALE

THEY INVEST HERE

AFTER SCANNING THE ADVANTAGES OF OTHER LOCALITIES

Older residents of Glendale have not the appreciation of her attractions and advantages that newcomers have. Custom stales her infinite variety; and besides, close association has caused us to lose our perspective. Keen-visioned strangers come in and point out to us things we should have seen long ago. We simply take them for granted, because they have always been here.

Robert McKenzie and S. L. Henry are two such far-seeing, appreciative newcomers in Glendale. Mr. McKenzie was engaged in the real estate business in Cleveland, Ohio, and his friend, Mr. Henry, was a builder there. They are men of large and successful business affairs in their Ohio home, and when they decided to locate in Southern California they did what any shrewd business men would do; looked the ground over thoroughly before making their decision. Hollywood, Pasadena, Los Angeles and many other points they have investigated thoroughly. Glendale, in her turn, received their attention. And South Glendale was their choice for investment and for location of their business a little later.

Through the realty firm of Wilkin & Merrikin, they have purchased a number of properties in South Glendale. Two of the largest of these were bought from Mrs. Celia Jenning, of Chino, who has other property holdings also in South Glendale.

Messrs. McKenzie and Henry have been associated together in a number of business activities in Cleveland. They know property values, they know the building business in all its phases and they have the capital to back their judgment. But of all, they are men of energy, enthusiasm and aggressiveness, who will justify their faith in their investments by boosting for that section of Glendale with all their might, and furthering its advancement in every way.

In making South Glendale their choice of location for investment, they took into consideration its proximity to Los Angeles, the new electric road through Ivanhoe into Los Angeles, the reasonable carfare, the lovely view of the mountains and the fact that we have three routes into Los Angeles. Other sections might lay equally valid claims to climate, sunshine and soil, but in the points enumerated, as well as several others, South Glendale seemed to have, in the opinions of Messrs. McKenzie and Henry, decidedly the advantage over all other places they visited.

One property they have just bought is on Central avenue, between

Strenuous Life

Reverend Ernest E. Ford, pastor of the First Baptist church, is leaving tomorrow for Auberry, a little town north of Fresno, where he will sojourn until after Thanksgiving.

The above sentence looks, on the face of it, as if the reverend gentleman was to have a little vacation far removed from the strenuous life of a minister in Glendale; but "things are not what they seem," as a beloved American poet told us, long ago. Instead of a surcease from labor, Mr. Ford will have an increase of endeavor; for he will speak nine times during those two days—and, moreover, he will speak through an interpreter, for his audience will be the Indians who live in that region. The interpreter is an Indian missionary who is stationed there.

Reverend E. E. Duley will occupy Mr. Ford's pulpit at both morning and evening services next Sunday.

Open House Today

The Glendale branch of the Southern California Telephone company is holding a reception to its patrons and the public in general today, in order to show the workings of the different departments of the plant.

This should prove interesting and illuminating and is likely to work for harmony and understanding—if you attend. To get the benefit of this or any other opportunity one must remember to make the effort to meet it half-way.

DENSE FOG IS CAUSE OF FATAL ACCIDENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 18.—Struck by one Pacific Electric Sherman car and knocked into the path of another, coming at high speed in the opposite direction, John M. Elliott, Jr., and Miss Alice Elliott, son and daughter of J. M. Elliott, president of the board of directors of the First National Bank, were the victims of a fatal automobile-street car accident late last night. The accident was due to the dense fog.

MEXICAN COAL MINES IN HANDS OF STRIKERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Nov. 18.—Reports received here today said that strikers in the coal regions of Coahila, Mexico, have taken over the mines. The situation was said to be serious, with some rioting and disorders. Americans are reported to have been guaranteed protection by the central government.

WILL NOT RECOGNIZE CONSTANTINE GOV'T.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

PARIS, Nov. 18.—The French Foreign Office today announced that Great Britain and France will not recognize a Greek government headed by King Constantine. The announcement declared the two countries, as guarantors of the Greek kingdom, are entitled to determine the character of the government.

THREE NEGROES SHOT TO DEATH BY MOB

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

DOUGLAS, Georgia, Nov. 18.—Three negroes, two men and a woman, implicated in the killing of Pearly Harper, a prominent planter, were lined up by a mob today and shot to death. A crowd of 150 men overpowered three sheriffs who were seeking to spirit the negroes away for safe keeping.

GENERAL DECREASE IN THE PRICE OF FOOD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—The Department of Labor today announced that retail food prices decreased 3 per cent between September 15 and October 15. Wholesale prices during October dropped over 8 per cent, the department said, and prices received by farmers dropped by a still greater percentage.

ELKS' DOINGS

LARGE DELEGATION VISITS LOS ANGELES 99—MANY TO GO TO REDONDO

A large delegation of Glendale Elks visited Los Angeles Chapter No. 99 last evening at their ratification meeting of the new building program. The new building program, which calls for the erection of a $1,500,000 club house at Eighth and Flower streets, was put through successfully. When completed, this club house will accommodate over three hundred and fifty guests. A most enthusiastic and enjoyable meeting was held.

Members of local lodge No. 1289 are awaiting with anticipation the good time in store for them this evening, when they will be the guests of their Redondo brothers. The program for the evening includes their regular lodge session and initiation, followed by a high jinks and banquet. Special cars have been chartered and a large number of Glendale Elks are expected to attend.

Hogues Give Dinner

Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Hogue of 329 North Jackson entertained a number of out-of-town guests at a dinner party last Sunday. The guests were all cousins of Dr. Hogue and this was the first time in many years that they had all been together. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Eschert of San Gabriel; Mrs. Pugh and children, Virginia and Edgar, of Jackson, Tennessee; Mrs. A. M. Marmaduke, Sanford Marmaduke and Mrs. Betty Owens of Los Angeles. Mrs. Hogue was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Addie Allen. In the afternoon the out-of-town visitors were taken on an automobile ride through Glendale and San Fernando Valley. They were so favorably impressed that Mrs. Pugh and family expect to locate here.

New Jersey Reunion

The Mutual State society of New Jersey is to meet tonight, 7:30, in Bartel hall, 934 West Sixth street, Los Angeles. There are several natives of New Jersey living in Glendale and Mrs. A. J. Harrison, of 1441 West Windsor road, is trying to get all of them to attend, as she still loves her native state though loyal to the core to Glendale.

HIGH SCHOOL P.-T. A. MEETS

TEACHERS AND PARENTS OF STUDENTS DISCUSS RECREATION

MISS KNIGHT TALKS

MANY SUBJECTS VITAL TO THE STUDENTS' PHYSICAL WELFARE CONSIDERED

The High School Parent-Teacher association met Wednesday afternoon in the cafeteria, the first half hour being devoted to visiting by parents and teachers while the hospitality committee served tea.

During the business session arrangements were made whereby two comforters are to be pieced and given to the Welfare Council.

As an introduction to the subject of the day, "Recreation in the High School," the president gave a short report of a discussion on the same subject had at a meeting of the First District Congress of Mothers by Miss Clark of Pasadena High school. Then Miss Knight, girls' physical instructor in Glendale High, was introduced and she gave a resume of the physical work planned for the year, showing its effect physically as well as mentally and morally upon the girls. The physical exercise, as well as the ability to play together and to work together, all serve to give the girl the foundation necessary for good citizenship.

Coach Hayhurst was to have spoken on athletics as planned and carried out for the boys but was not present and Prof. Ferguson took his place, presenting in a forceful way the necessity and results of clean sport learned while young. The successful man always takes time for recreation. The state law demands two hours a week spent in exercise, but this is not nearly enough for the normal boy or girl and the boy should learn to play hard when he plays and work hard when he works.

Mrs. Gibson presented the plan of popular programs carried out last year and to be continued this year whereby splendid artists in various

Miss Margaret LaCom of 334 Oak street will be married this evening to Wm. Alexander Conners, of Glendale, at a Los Angeles church. They will spend their honeymoon at Catalina, and upon their return will make their home in Glendale.

The junior class of the Glendale Union High school are proodly displaying their new sweaters and caps. These are of black and red, the sweaters of bright red being decorated with the numerals "22" in black.

The closing game of the football season will be played tomorrow afternoon by the Glendale High school team against Monrovia High. Glendale has lost only one game this season and is quite confident of winning this last one.

Geo. E. Jeffries of 300 Salem street, accompanied by C. W. Spickerman, Lynn Spickerman and C. E. Russell, left at four o'clock this morning on a quail hunting trip to Escondido. They will return Saturday.

Dr. Harry V. Brown and family are moving from 337 North Central avenue to 144 North Orange, and S. C. Hamilton is moving into the residence at 724 East Windsor road, recently vacated by E. E. Tyler, who moved into an apartment at 125½ North Brand.

Mrs. H. M. Merrill of 340 North Cedar street entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening at a duck dinner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Warman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Springer, Miss Beulah Butts and Dan Reed of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Barnett of Glendale.

W. E. Stearing, who arrived in Glendale about a month ago, has purchased an interest in the Heal & King Furniture Co., 246 North Brand boulevard. Mr. Stearing is a former resident of Jefferson, Iowa. He made the trip to Glendale in his automobile. Mrs. Stearing came by train a week ago. They are making their home with Roy King, 214 N. Belmont street, until they can get a permanent location.

The Missionary Society of the Casa Verdugo church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Cotton, 1137 San Rafael, for its regular meeting Tuesday evening. There were thirty-five present. Mrs. W. B. Campbell rendered several splendid piano solos. Dr. Thayer, pastor of the church, gave a reading. Mr. Cotton sang. The house was decorated with chrysanthemums. After the program refreshments were served.

H. C. Joy, former commercial instructor at the Glendale Union High school, who is now assistant superintendent of the Santa Maria fields of the Union Oil Co., together with his wife, spent the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Lamberty, 331 West Wilson avenue. They have departed for Covina and Whittier, where they will visit friends and relatives before returning to Santa Maria.

J. M. Slaughter and wife, who arrived in Los Angeles the first of the week from Parsons, Kansas, followed the example of so many others who have heard of the many charms and advantages of Glendale while still in the eastern home. They came out to this city the first thing to find a place to rent and were fortunate enough to attain their object the first day. They will be located at 320 East Lomita avenue.

The bungalow court under construction at 609 North Brand boulevard, by Babcock & Weeks, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy. A lovely garden with lawns, ferns, shrubbery, vines and fountains is being planned. This is based on ideas gained from a visit to the gardens of some of the largest courts in Hollywood. The interiors are practically completed, and the exterior, which will be of a cream-colored, smooth stucco, will be finished soon.

In the trial of Dr. Edward Rumely, Norvin R. Lindheim and S. Walter Kaufman, in the Federal court at New York City, on the charge of withholding the temporary ownership of the Evening Mail of that city from the Enemy Alien Custodian in 1917, a Glendale man, Alfred Baron, of 1325 East Maple, was one of the witnesses. In 1915 he was connected with the Equitable Trust Co. of New York. He testified that a joint account was opened in this institution in the names of J. Bernstoff and Dr. Heinrich L. Albert, the first named of whom, he admitted, was Count Von Bernstoff.

WOMEN OFFICIALS

A. H. NICHOLS' HOME TOWN, YOUCALLA, ORE., HAS FEMININE CITY GOVERNMENT

A. H. Nichols of the Glendale Bicycle Shop received a day or two ago a newspaper clipping showing a picture and containing a write-up of the mayoress and four councilwomen elected on November 2 in his old home town, Youcalla, Ore. There had been considerable complaint of the former city council of Youcalla, which is a town of about 5000, on account of lax enforcement of traffic, liquor and gambling laws and the members, who were all men, suggested that if the women knew so much about law enforcement they'd better take it upon themselves. The women promptly accepted the challenge and nominated a full ticket or women. Five of the prominent ladies of the city, all housewives, were nominated and they had no opposition. The citizens of Youcalla look forward to a successful administration of public affairs, as the mayoress and councilwomen are on their mettle and are determined to show the men what real law enforcement means. Mr. Nichols, as a former resident of Youcalla, is greatly interested in the outcome of this novel experiment.

Los Feliz and San Fernando roads. It has a frontage of 160 feet; they will remodel the house on this property and build two other houses there.

Messrs. McKenzie and Henry are very enthusiastic about the future of Glendale and particularly of South Glendale. They are looking for other properties in that locality, through their agents, Wilkin and Merrikin. It is probable that Mr. McKenzie will enter the real estate business, and he also favors a building and loan association for Glendale.

These gentlemen being men of standing and influence in and about Cleveland, there is no doubt that many inquiries will come to them from Ohio people looking forward to locating in California. And, of course, Messrs. McKenzie and Henry will boost for South Glendale.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Roberts were members of a dinner and theatre party in Los Angeles last evening.

Mrs. Mary A. Ayers of 215 East Palmer avenue has taken out a permit for the erection of a 5-room house and a garage at 1125 South Glendale avenue, to cost $4950.

Mrs. A. J. Esterly of 363 West Salem street is looking forward to the arrival soon of her brother, George H. Nenftiel, of Johnstown, Pennsylvania, who will spend the winter with the Esterly family.

Henry M. Calkins, advertising man for the Evening News, received a telegram this morning announcing the death of his brother Garnett, who was associated with another brother, Willard, in the Calkins Publishing Co., Denver, Colo.

E. P. Hayward informs the Evening News that the Edwards & Wildey company has opened new branch offices, one at 544 South Western avenue, to specialize in Wilshire district property of all classes, and the other at 7601 Sunset boulevard, Hollywood, to specialize in Hollywood property. The other office is at 4775 Santa Monica boulevard, near the University of California, and will make a specialty of property in that section. The company also maintains branch offices in Eagle Rock and Glendale.

One of the new enterprises to be established in Los Angeles recently and which is sponsored by local people is the Bastian Combination Water Heater Co., with headquarters at 1600 Hooper avenue. A. W. Beach of Glendale, Ralph Hinckley, formerly of Glendale but now of Hollywood, Guy Hinckley of Hollywood and Mr. Bastian, an experienced heater man, of Los Angeles, are the parties interested. Ralph Hinckley, it will be remembered, was at one time owner of the Glendale Hardware company and upon disposing of this business moved to Hollywood, where he has been engaged in the wholesale plumbing and plumbing contracting business.

Mrs. Naylor Rogers of Eagle Rock was a caller on the Evening News this morning to arrange for extensive classified advertising to dispose of property interests in Glendale and her home city. Mr. Rogers was at the head of the classified advertising department of one of the Los Angeles evening papers for several years, but having received very flattering offers from large dailies in Chicago, Washington, Baltimore and other eastern cities, resigned his position a month ago and last night started for Chicago to investigate the offer there first. As soon as he decides on a location and she has disposed of the property here, she and the two children will join him in the east.

the convention and the electrical effects were to be of unusual beauty. When the lights were turned on to test them, a great sign over the proscenium arch, "I am the light of the world," burst into flames, and soon the whole building, flimsily constructed as all temporary buildings are, was a mass of fire. The chorus filed out in orderly fashion and no one was injured.

The building which was burned seated 2900. The Imperial Theatre, where the convention was held, seated 2500, but they had a unique way of seating more people, Mr. Bender says. The arms of the opera chairs are raised up, everybody moves along the row a little bit, and behold, at one end there is room for two more people—or even three, if none of them are very fat!

Three of the pageants given were "The Rights of the Child," "Bethlehem to Tokio" and "The City Beautiful." The pageants were intensely interesting to the Japanese; many of them came hundreds of miles to see them; among those who came from afar were a large band of students from Yokohama. Pageantry was a new thing to the Japanese and they were much impressed.

Missionaries in Japan are hopeful of great good resulting from impressions of the convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Bender climbed to the top of the great wall of China, famous from times immemorial, almost; they visited the queer Japanese theatres, and noted the beauty of the country and the thrift of the people, who use every foot of tillable land, walling up the streams that they may not wash away the banks, terracing the mountains that they may plant them to grain and other food plants. Especially beautiful, Mrs. Bender says, are the great groves of cedars, eucalyptus and other trees whose names she did not know, with which the Japanese have clothed the mountainsides.

The Benders were especially impressed with Korea and the Koreans. Shanghai they oescribed as a city in three sections: American, British and Chinese. Honolulu was their first glimpse of a tropical city and, like all travelers, they were enchanted with this "land in which it seemed always afternoon."

READING CIRCLE

A copy of one of the books in the reading course is to be presented to the mother of the new circle baby, Mrs. Harry B. Lynch.

At noon time an opportunity was given to greet Mrs. Toll as she was unable to remain for the afternoon session. As she departed Mrs. Cotton led the ladies in singing.

Mrs. A. A. Barton, the successor of Mrs. Toll as presiding officer resumed charge of the meeting after lunch. After roll call the afternoon was spent in reading the work on "Increasing Home Efficiency."

There will be no meeting of the circle next Wednesday as it is the day before Thanksgiving. However, December 1 is to be a special First District Day, so a large attendance is anticipated.

lines appear before the student body, giving the students a high standard of excellence in those lines by which to judge. These not only prove educational, but are recreation from the mental standpoint.

The Girls' League also plans a program for each month, these proving entertaining and developing initiative and resourcefulness among the girls.

In a purely social way recreation is secured through class parties, each class having at least one party during the year and sometimes two. Owing to lack of room nothing can be attempted in the way of school parties, and these do help much to keep alive a genial school spirit.

F. McGee Kelley has moved the small frame building formerly occupied by the Glendale Plant & Floral Co. to his lot at 615 Myrtle and will build a $1600 addition to it, making a residence of it.

New residences of Rex C. Kelley at 1109 North Louise, C. L. Buckner at 631 East Acacia avenue, front and rear, C. B. Haig at 1108 San Rafael and Mrs. C. LaRowe at 1339 East Harvard, are about ready for occupancy, the electric light meters having been ordered installed.

Mrs. Jennie Morrow will build a 4-room house and garage at 515 Fairmont avenue, to cost $2500; Mrs. Joseph Morrow a 4-room residence at 528 Burchett, to cost $2300; J. L. Doran 3 rooms at 1032 Boynton, cost $1000; Donald Magill 3 rooms at 475 West Maple, $500.

Mrs. Chas. R. Peirce, 328 West Elk avenue, has returned from a two months' visit in the East, going by way of the Canadian Pacific and returning via Santa Fe. Stops were made in Montreal, Vermont, Providence, Boston, New York and at the Grand Canyon of Colorado. Mrs. C. O. Mack, stepmother of Mrs. C. R. Peirce, accompanied her on the return trip and is making her home with T. F. Peirce of 317 Vine street, son of Mrs. C. R. Peirce.

Rector Course Claim of Supremacy Backed by Actual Results—

AND such amazing results, too. Pupils declared "unmusical" by both parents and teacher, have become our most enthusiastic students. Children who would never study or practice a music lesson have had to be restrained from over-studying. Wee little girls who would rather miss a day at school than to miss their music lesson. Boys who would pass up a football game to be on time for their music lesson. ENTHUSIASM? INTEREST? If that isn't enthusiasm and interest, then we fail to get Webster's meaning.

Without fear of contradiction we claim that our average pupil knows more of the actual basic fundamentals of music than do many music students and teachers who have studied for years, and we know that some of our twelve and thirteen year old boys and girls can solve musical problems that would prove a baffling puzzle to most music students and to some teachers.

Strong claims we know—but we stand ready to prove them to anyone who is seriously interested. Our whole method can be summed up in one word—RESULTS—that's what you want—that's what we get. And remember, we teach MUSIC—not piano thumping. The Rector course is based on sound facts. Our teachers are thorough in every detail. We give you an absolutely unqualified guarantee as to their competency.

We welcome a personal investigation and on request will gladly call at your residence to give you complete details of our work.

Committee Luncheon

Mrs. Charles L. Marlenee, curator of the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery, of the Shakespeare club, are hostesses today at a social tea at Mrs. Marlenee's home.

Their guests are members of the committee who will have charge of the fancy work booth of the coming club bazaar, and includes Mesdames G. D. Roach, G. Phillips, Art Dibbern, Charles Pendleton, H. L. Baker, J. C. Waite, H. L. Clotworthy and Miss Eva Daniels, of the music section; Mesdames George Herald and H. W. Ralston, of the Shakespeare section.

Much enthusiasm is manifested in the elaborate preparations the club is making for the bazaar and plans are working out satisfactorily.

PACOIMA DAM

CHIEF ENGINEER OF U. S. RECLAMATION SERVICE HERE TO CONSIDER IT

That President Wilson is speeding up flood control work in Los Angeles County was demonstrated yesterday when it was learned that Arthur Powell Davis, chief engineer of the United States reclamation service, is here to make a personal investigation of the engineering features connected with the proposed Pacoima Canyon dam in which project several Glendale citizens are interested on account of owning cabins in the canyon located on ground leased from the government. If the present plans for the Pacoima dam are carried out it will be the highest dam in the world and will cost close to $2,000,000. It is to be a protection from floods by regulating the flow of storm waters after the basin is filled and at the same time storing millions of cubic feet of water for irrigation purposes.

Midgets Make Good

The Midgets, second football team of Glendale Union High school, has disbanded, having completed the season with eight games played, one of which they won and two of which resulted in tie scores. This is not a bad showing, considering that not one member of the team had played football before and every team they went up against was the first team of some high school. So rapidly did they progress in efficiency, however, that one of them will play with the first team on Friday and four of them will be on the first team next year. Prof. Alfred Cookman, assistant coach, has had charge of the Midgets.

Western Electric Household Appliances

At your finger tips!
The Solution of Household Drudgery

IF you let these Western Electric labor-saving appliances do your housework for you, you will feel rested when night time comes.

The Western Electric Washer and Wringer saves you all the backache of laundry work. Think of just turning the family wash over to this dependable servant, which washes them clean without fuss or trouble.

What a pleasure it would be to sew, if only you didn't have that incessant pedaling or bobbin winding to tire you! Sew with the Western Electric Portable Two-Spool Sewing Machine and you sew from a spool instead of a bobbin, while the motor does the hard work for you.

Is there ever an end to house-cleaning? First one room, then another. But it's easy enough when you have a Western Electric Vacuum Sweeper to take up the dirt. You simply turn on the switch and wheel the Sweeper about.

Your Western Electric Iron keeps a steady, even heat and so saves you countless steps between stove and ironing-board to change for a hot iron. Surely, the Western Electric way is the comfortable way.

Keep your hands out of the dishpan! That's every woman's dream. You can make this dream come true by getting a Western Electric Dishwasher and Kitchen Table to save you the bother of washing and drying dishes.

Yes, a Western Electric day is a day without fatigue—and all the dread of housework forgotten.

Ask us about our liberal terms arrangement for placing Western Electric labor-saving appliances in your home.
